1	It was very open.	Appreciation of others' openness and sincerity	More background in Clarion Herald	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
2				Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
3	Helped me to better understand Church's' views. Helped me to think about individuals.	Realized what a significant problem this is for our Church and country.	This was excellent. Having an undocumented alien at our table was very insightful.	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
4		The income tax payment by undocumented.	More participation by immigrants (undocumented and not)	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
5	It reinforced my belief that many Catholics want to do the right thing but don't have access to comprehensive information about the issues.	The opportunity to talk and listen to others about immigration and Catholic social teaching.	Recruit more immigrants for the discussion	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
6		Knowing other people		Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
7	we were very fortunate to have extremely knowledgeable people at our table.	I learned so much from people with first-hand experience of immigration difficulties.	Better dissemination of the Bishop's messages.	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12

8	Personal level of having Alberto and Jennifer; I am hopeful by the effort in Catholic Dialogue on Immigration that more people might get educated/interested in topic. Hopeful toward immigration reform and Bishop's effort.	Even if a person does not have citizenship they still pay income tax; need to learn the language - Spanish.	Engage Hispanic population or other non-American in the dialogue.	Immigrated to US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
9	Became informed of Catholic Church's position on immigration; met very interesting people from area and from parish; heard about work being done with immigrants in parish and other parishes	Personal experiences of others; impressed by bishops teachings; worry about how these values could ever be implemented because of politicians.	Make it more available to Catholics so that they know the Church's position on immigration	Immigrated to US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
10		Bishop's call for reform; global anti-poverty efforts need analysis to understand causes	Continue these discussions	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
11	Learned much from not only the presentation but also from the participants	What the bishops position is	More diverse participants/opinions	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
12	Good to share with others	The handout on Catholic teaching on immigration	Find a way to get better mix of people with different views.	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
13	I enjoy listening to other people's views and further educating myself about social issues.		I think the group could help advertise the dialogues by advertising the meetings more.	Born in US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
14		Everyone sees that changes are needed and at least some changes need to be made soon. Everyone cares about the issues of immigration whether they see it the same or not.	Keep spreading the word and doing it over and over. The Bishops have some real options and ideas to help the justice for immigrants.	Immigrated to US	St. Jerome - 3/24/12
